RE-OPENING OF ST. JOHN'S COL-LEGE, ANNAPOLIS, MD.—This institution, one of the oldest in the State. now liberally endowed by the Legislature, will open on the 18th of September next, with an entire reorganization. It is believed that no similar institution offers greater advantages to those wishing to obtain a thorough liberal education, or to pursue a partial course.

These advantages are, in part, the following:

1. Extensive and commodicus buildings, thoroughly repaired and refurnished, capable of boarding 130 students, and of accommodating more than three hundred; all situated in one of the most beautiful and salubrious localities, and of refuging ample incilities for a full physical and affording ample acilities for a full physical development by boating, swimming, skating, and other healthful and useful exercises. There will also be a well-furnished gymnasium on the

2. A full course in the departments of study usually embraced in a college curriculum, and, in addition, a very extensive range of selection in Special Departments. 3. Special and prominent attention is given to the study of the history, structure and literature of the English language. Every student from the time of his admission to College will receive a systematic and the party training in the knowledge. systematic and thorough training in the knowledge and correct use of our mother tongue.

4. Unusual facilities are afforded for the study of German, French, Italian and Spanish, without extra charge. 5. A special and comprehensive course of in-struction is furnished for those who design to teach. To all such students tuition is remitted on easy conditions. 6. An extensive course of instruction is provided in Physical Geography, National Industries and Resources, Commercial Law, Book Keeping, and such other studies as are required to prepare young men to enter successfully into business and commercial pursuits. 7. A carefully graded preparatory department, including Classical and English studies, is under the same general government, and taught by the same professors, as the Collegiate Department.
